We want you to be part of our biggest Giving Day yet!

Dear <<Salutation>>,

Each year on Giving Day, alumni and friends from around the world come together for an extraordinary event that impacts Wayne State. On September 17 our goal is simple: to inspire people to demonstrate their Warrior pride and provide essential funding for students and critical programs.

We want to make it as easy as possible for our valued loyal donors to participate. Today, you can make a Giving Day gift online at givingday.wayne.edu/earlyaccess. Your early gift will inspire others to act and fuel how Detroit's university can respond to what we face now - and how we can create the better world we're reimagining.

Thank you, and together we are Warrior Strong!
