South Dakota State University Athletic Department and the Jackrabbit Club invites you to join us for special event. The 2020 Jackrabbit Athletic Scholarship Auction will become an interactive online experience that also will benefit other philanthropic endeavors.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, a portion of the evening's proceeds will be directed to Feeding South Dakota, with additional support designated for high-need scholarships at SDSU. Once again, an anonymous donor has agreed to provide a two-to-one match, allowing supporters to triple their impact on the auction. The Jackrabbit Athletic Scholarship Auction has hit the million-dollar mark each of the last three years. This year, our goal for the 2020 Jackrabbit Athletic Scholarship Auction is to once again raise over $1 million!

Dear Heidi,

The world needs what today's Jackrabbits will become.

They will have to overcome some obstacles in the pursuit of their dreams. Among these is the cost of a higher education. In this time of great uncertainty and unprecedented circumstances, students need our support more than ever before.

In only two days, the Jackrabbit Athletic Scholarship Auction will bring together hundreds of people digitally to support students. In addition to student-athletes, the fundraising has been expanded to include needs-based scholarships for the broader SDSU student population. An anonymous donor is generously providing a 2-for-1 match, which includes gifts for needs-based scholarships, for all gifts made by 7pm on SATURDAY, MAY 2nd.

With this match, the impact of your gift is tripled.

Your gift can give hope and motivation to Jackrabbits. Your gift can inspire the next generation of students to continue their pursuit of excellence and in making SDSU proud.

Today, we can make a difference; tomorrow, it's our graduates' turn.

With loyal hearts so true,

Steve Erpenbach
SDSU Foundation, President and CEO
