

Dear Emma,

Those of us who have been fortunate to call Washington University home are part of a special community whose bond reaches across class year, area of study, and even geography. Together, we share the extraordinary experience of living, learning, and growing in an environment that prizes knowledge, innovation, and opportunity. Because of WashU's indelible impact, we not only look forward to returning to campus this spring for our Reunions, but also continue to give back year after year so that today's students can have the same transformative education.

The Washington University Loyalty Society recognizes alumni, former residents and fellows, and current students who give any amount, anywhere within the university, for two or more consecutive fiscal years. These annual gifts create opportunities for talented students and scholars, providing essential resources for scholarships and fellowships, academic and extracurricular programs, research, and so much more. Together, WashULoyal donors are the engine that drives forward the university's mission of teaching, research, and service to society.

Thank you for being a Loyalty Society member. You can retain your membership in the Loyalty Society when you contribute again by June 30. As proud WashULoyal alumni, we encourage you to join us and reaffirm your commitment today! No matter the size, every gift makes a difference when we all participate.

With gratitude,

Dear Mr. Sample:

Those of us who have been fortunate to call Washington University home are part of a special community whose bond reaches across class year, area of study, and even geography. Together, we share the extraordinary experience of living, learning, and growing in an environment that prizes knowledge, innovation, and opportunity.

During our student days, WashU kindled our curiosity and creativity, and instilled a spirit of generosity that stayed with us long after graduation. The university shaped us not just as students but as people. Because of its indelible impact, we not only look forward to returning to campus this spring for our Reunions, but also continue to give back year after year so that today's students can have the same transformative education.

The Washington University Loyalty Society recognizes alumni, former residents and fellows, and current students who give any amount, anywhere within the university, for two or more consecutive fiscal years.
