

The University of Texas at Austin
School of Law

Dear Gretchen,

I am honored to serve our alumni community as President of the Texas Law Alumni Association Executive Committee. And I write in that capacity to invite you to join me in generously supporting the 42nd Annual Texas Law Giving Campaign.

As was the case when many of us were in school, tuition covers only a portion of the cost of a law school education. Alumni support through the annual giving campaign provides the critical source of funds that helps close the funding gap. Alumni giving made our education possible. And by making an annual contribution to the law school, you are ensuring the success of the next generation of Texas Law leaders.

The Annual Giving Campaign gives our entire alumni network—over 25,000 strong—a chance to participate. All gifts count; all gifts matter. The Campaign also provides an opportunity to support the student experience—the intangibles that made our law school experience memorable, and that are critical to the success of the student experience today. Fellowship. Scholarship. Teaching. And Togetherness. Your support is needed now more than ever.

So many of you already generously support Texas Law with gifts of your time, talent and treasure. You mentor law students, provide career opportunities for our graduates, and serve as adjunct professors, among other things. And your contributions over the past six months in particular have been both remarkable and essential. You have answered the call.

As the Law School moves onward, I respectfully invite you to answer the call again. Whether you can give $100 or $1,000 (or more!), please support the Annual Giving Campaign today.

In service,

Milam Newby, BA '00, JD '03
