

Dear Rim and Joseph,

Drawn to CCES by their own lifelong love of learning, our teachers and coaches bring an extraordinary breadth of experience to the School. CCES faculty includes published authors and researchers, experts in their fields with advanced degrees, talented athletes, and award-winning professionals. CCES attracts and retains these outstanding educators because this community invests in them.

In a time when in-person learning is both a necessity and privilege, your generosity allows the school to provide the highest caliber faculty to each and every student at CCES. Because of gifts to the Cavalier Fund, our students have an educational experience that is dynamic, well-rounded, thought-provoking, and inspiring. They have opportunities to express themselves creatively, push themselves physically, and know deeply what it means to be part of a community in which we respect and support one another in keeping with our Episcopal values.

“Each day, I am thankful to this community for allowing me to be a part of teaching and empowering students to find their passions, to become aware of and to respond to the needs that they see in the community and beyond CCES. My hope is that students will continue to give of themselves and realize that each time they do, they are making a difference in our community.”

-Elizabeth Jarrett '82, CCES Director of Service and Experiential Learning

In support of our faculty and your student(s), we hope you will consider making a gift to the Cavalier Fund this year. Parent participation is crucial in achieving the goal of $760,000. And this year, any charitable contributions you make before 2021 are eligible for a 100% tax deduction under the CARES Act legislation.

Thank you for giving our faculty and staff the opportunity to deepen their commitment to this community, year after year. Our students thrive when you invest in the teachers, counselors, coaches, and mentors who invest in them.

Kind Regards,

Bill & Laura Pelham
