What is the Florida Tech Parent Leadership Council?

The Parent Leadership Council (PLC) is a diverse group of parents and family of students who are dedicated to Florida Tech's success. Their perspective has enriched many areas of the university. A commitment to the PLC includes attendance at two meetings per academic year. Special invitations to other Florida Tech events will be extended as well.

Involvement level: 🐾🐾🐾

The PLC supports the mission of the university by:

- Providing important input and advice, especially on topics that can advance the overall goals of the university, increasing its reputation and delivery of the best education possible for our students
- Contributing philanthropically with an average annual gift of $2,500 to support the university through the Panther Parent Fund or other areas of the university
- Giving of their time and talents to support student success and university events
- Serving as ambassadors in their communities and in their fields

Other ways to give and serve

Panther Parent Ambassadors

Involvement level: 🐾🐾🐾

A Panther Parent Ambassador is a parent who invests annually as a Panther Parent (see below) and wants to volunteer, serve and represent the university. Panther Parent Ambassadors will be called on periodically and asked to attend events and represent the university in various ways, such as:

- Providing volunteer support during admissions events such as Discovery Days, Admitted Student Days, Orientation events and Family Weekend
- Participating in programs such as mock interviews and networking, prospective student interviews and capstone coaching

Panther Parent Association

Involvement level: 🐾🐾🐾

Any parent who philanthropically supports the Panther Fund or any other university fund with a minimum $40 gift annually is part of the Panther Parent Association.

All parents who give a minimum contribution will receive an official Panther Parent card and tee shirt. The Panther Parent card is good for one academic year and includes several benefits:

- One free meal at Panther Dining Hall (PDH)
- 10% discount on one item at the Florida Tech Bookstore
- Free admission to all home sporting events

Getting involved is easy!
