CSP_FALM10_President's_Circle

Dear XXSalutationXX,

As Concordia University, St. Paul students settle into the rhythm of a new semester, there's one thing they'd like to tell you ...

Thank you for your support during an extremely challenging time.

Your generosity helped CSP remain nimble and flexible in a rapidly changing environment. Thanks to you, we were still able to prepare our students for thoughtful and informed living and dedicated service to God and humanity.

The leadership of President's Circle members like you is crucial to CSP's continued success, especially amidst turbulent and uncertain times. Your gift today will ensure a CSP education remains excellent, affordable and responsive to students' needs.

Continue partnering with CSP as a President's Circle member to empower students by returning your gift with the enclosed reply form and envelope or by visiting supportcsp.org/2020/fall.

CSP students are incredible individuals who are eager to serve God and care for His creation. As CSP's president and an alumnus, I am incredibly proud of them – and I think they'd make you proud, too.

Your gift today will support students like Alysha Tracy, who volunteers with the Medical Reserve Corps testing vulnerable populations for COVID-19.

Thanks to donors like you, Alysha didn't have to choose between volunteering and paying tuition when the economy faltered this spring. She continues to thrive in her studies this semester, knowing she has the support of the CSP community behind her.

XXSalutationXX, thank you for your generous support for CSP and our students.

With sincere blessings and thanks,

Brian L. Friedrich, BA '79, M.Div., Ph.D
President

P.S. If you are unable to secure your President's Circle membership today, please know that gifts of all sizes add up, empowering students to discover their purpose for life, career and service.
