You will also receive special communications from the President and networking opportunities with other President's Circle members and University leadership.

Together, there is so much we can and will do. As a member of The President's Circle, you represent the leadership of our extended community. There is so much that your investment and support has allowed us to accomplish. Thank you for that support, and we invite you to renew your President's Circle membership again this year. Our students, our faculty – indeed everyone on our campus – is indebted to every member of The President's Circle.

Wishing you and your family a joyous holiday season.
