Uplift through the Arts

The Music Center Board of Directors member Melissa Romain with her husband Alex and their children, Aidan and Olivia.

Dear <NAME>,

I still remember the magical feeling I had the first time I attended a live musical theater performance. I have carried that feeling with me ever since, and it has motivated me to go from participating in free theater programs as a child, to working in the arts, to becoming a patron and donor. When I was introduced to The Music Center, as a newcomer to Los Angeles, I knew I had found my people. As a member of The Music Center's Board of Directors, I am fortunate to share my passion with so many others who want to give back to the community.

As supporters of The Music Center, you know the vital role the arts play in our lives and communities. Please uplift L.A. County students through the arts by making a gift of $<ASKAMT>. I hope you'll consider giving before our fiscal year ends on June 30, 2021.

It has been clear to me from a young age that when you experience the arts, it affects you in positive ways on every level. I am so proud The Music Center is continuing to offer free and low-cost arts learning initiatives to students of all ages and backgrounds during the pandemic and moving to introduce new socially distanced performances and events. Additionally, by moving arts learning programs online, we have extended our reach to every corner of L.A. County and beyond. Thank you for helping inspire young Angelenos.

I cannot wait for the day when we can all gather safely at The Music Center again!

With warm regards,

Melissa Romain
