

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Dear <Name>,

When Forward: The Campaign for the Fordham Law Experience was launched in 2014, we set a modest goal of securing $25 million to increase our scholarship and financial aid offerings. Our community, unsurprisingly, stepped up in countless ways to offer support to our students, enabling us to surpass our initial goal by more than $12 million. Recognizing the need for academic and programmatic enhancements, and learning that our alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and friends wanted to further their impact on the Fordham Law experience, I was thrilled to announce the expansion of our campaign and set a new $100 million goal.

Thanks to the collective generosity of our entire community, the Law School continues to reach new heights, raising $86 million for our community, with the expectation that we will reach our $100 million goal by the end of this year. Your commitment to the Dean's Law School Campaign Fund has allowed us to add to our financial aid and scholarship offerings, increase the number of public interest fellowships available to our students, continue to build our mentorship opportunities, develop wellness, career planning, and community programs, and so much more.

All of these enrichments are a direct result of your involvement at Fordham Law. I cannot thank you enough for all that you have done to strengthen our School. On the back of this letter, you will see just one example of how support of the Forward campaign has had a transformational impact on Fordham Law.

Please consider continuing to move the School forward by making a gift today. Your ongoing philanthropy is the fuel that powers the Fordham Law experience, ensuring our students gain the analytical skills and legal knowledge to become truly exceptional lawyers while preparing them to act as an unstoppable force for good.

Thank you for all that you do for Fordham Law School.

Sincerely,

Matthew Diller
Dean and Paul Fuller Professor of Law

Your dedication to Fordham Law affirms your belief in the power of a transformative legal education. Thank you for your support!

Rich Ross '86

Jordana Alter Confino

Brandon Small '23

Recognizing the need to broaden support for upper-year level mentorship, Rich Ross '86 made a transformational gift that enabled the School to launch the Professionalism Fellows Program. The program provides robust offerings to second-year students who seek additional guidance, deepening their ties to the Law School community.

As the Director of Professionalism, Jordana Alter Confino, brings Rich Ross' vision to life at the Law School, working to enhance the student experience through initiatives like the Professionalism Fellows Program and the House System. Of last year's professionalism fellows, Jordana says, "We were blown away by the level of leadership, responsibility, and ownership that the fellows took over their initiatives, and by the extent to which they were able to help us facilitate a robust sense of community within each house."

Brandon Small '23, a professionalism fellow, is struck by how willing Fordham Law students and alumni are to help each other out. "I hope to carry on the tradition of the Fordham Law connection that's so special. The strong alumni network and ties Fordham people have to each other is the reason I decided to attend Fordham Law."
