At Kent State, we are focused on the future. Every day on all of our campuses, inspiration is taking place as students explore, research and innovate. We spark imaginations, encouraging them to think beyond the expected, to envision a better, more meaningful future for us all.

Our commitment to our students is unshakable. And so is our belief in the power of Golden Flashes to change the world for the better.

We have big plans,
but it takes all of us to support
